

Peninsula Winds Concert
PLNU – Crill Hall
3900 Lomaland Drive, 92106
Friday February 23 – 7:00pm Concert
Advanced Band
Jazz Band

Advanced Band and Jazz Ensemble will be performing at the Point Loma Cluster Winds Concert is now scheduled for Friday, February 23rd in Crill Hall on the PLNU Campus. Also performing that evening will be the Dana Advanced Band, PLHS Wind Symphony, and the PLNU University Band. This is a wonderful evening of music that showcases the wonderful music occurring in the Point Loma Cluster. Please review the schedule below. This is a graded performance for students enrolled in Advanced Band and Jazz Ensemble.

Important: Please remember to bring your instrument home after school on the 23rd.. The band room will not be available after 2:30pm. (Remember to bring your instrument back Monday morning)

Schedule

Call Time – 6:15pm At Crill Hall
Concert – 7:00pm

Uniform

Formal Uniform:

Boys: Tux Shirt, bow tie, black pants, belt, shoes and socks.

Girls: Black uniform blouse and skirt/palazzo pants, black flat dress shoes.

Notes

You will provide your own transportation to this event.

Arrive early, parking is limited. I recommend carpooling if possible and dropping students off and then proceed to parking.

(After passing the guard shack, take two lefts and follow the road to the right and Crill Hall will be on the right before the next intersection)

This performance is mandatory for all Advanced Band and Jazz Students.

Emergency calls (such as illness) should be directed to Mr. Dwyer at his cell starting at 7am on Friday February 23 @ 619-889-9196. You can also email Mr. Dwyer (mdwyer@sandi.net) anytime if you have any questions or concerns.